I must tell you the truth, Lee ser answered, embarrassed. My readers are much displeased at me for accepting contributions from your pen. They can not stand your rationalistic views. So they, too, wish to have nothing to do with me, I mused, as Leeser continued in an humbler tone: I am, however, more concerned for Judaism than for my readers. I beg you, therefore, to take up the fight against the manifesto. I have the same duty, answered I. I, too, am more concerned for Judaism than for your readers. Therefore I will take up the fight against the manifesto-- e., if my plan of campaign is agreeable to you. What is it? Offensive, and not defensive, said I. The war must be carried into the enemy s country. I am tired of having to tell people time and time again why...
