Wyatt House Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Sharing our most personal pain brings not only our own healing, but also encouragement to others. In this, her first collection, Candy Reid loosely chronicles a series of experiences that would have torn a lesser soul apart. However, because of God's grace and through sheer tenacity, the result was a stronger faith of her own and a life deeply dedicated to obedience. In gratitude and out of that obedience, Who Turned Out The Lights?! describes how extremely difficult, challenging, and even painful events in our lives can be used for our good. Walking through the valley of the shadow of death (Psalm 23:4) can bring life and freedom and wisdom when we turn to God in its midst, rather than run from Him. As a mother, friend, wife, and breast cancer survivor, Candy Reid's words will strike a chord in almost everyone's heart. These pages will bring encouragement to those finding themselves in a dark place in life and wondering how they got there or, even more importantly, what possible good could come out of it. In each instance, a relevant Scripture is included that offers a balm to hurting souls, or wisdom to those seeking it. Who Turned Out the Lights?! is a loving gift to anyone in need; whether that someone is a dear friend, or yourself.
