

The Great Big Book of Horrible Things: The Definitive Chronicle of History's 100

By White, Matthew. Pinker, Steven, Foreword by.

Norton. 1 Cloth(s), 2012. hard. Book Condition: New. Evangelists of human progress meet their opposite in Matthew White's compulsively readable and utterly original account, an epic examination of history's one hundred most violent man-made events, ranked by deathsor, in White's piquant phrasing, "the numbers that people want to argue about." Also the creator of the online Historical Atlas of the 20th Century, White reaches back to 480 BC's second Persian War and moves chronologically through history to this century's war in the Congo with a chapter for each event, providing hard facts (time and place) and succinct takeaways (who usually gets the blame?) with lively military, social, and political histories. 669.

Reviews

Completely essential read publication. It is really basic but excitement in the fifty percent of the book. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about in the event you ask me).

This is the finest publication we have read through right up until now. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been written in an remarkably easy way in fact it is only after i finished reading through this book by which basically altered me, affect the way i think.
