Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .De l Amitie est un traite philosophique de Ciceron, redige en 44 av. J.-C. a la demande insistante de son ami Atticus. Les relations entre les etres humains et le sens de la vie constituent les principales interrogations de Ciceron dans ce traite. Il exalte le role et la necessite de l amitie dans les rapports sociaux et la vie politique romaine par de nombreux exemples tires de l histoire de Rome, a une epoque que Ciceron considere comme l age d or de la Republique, lorsqu elle etait geree par un petit groupe d hommes lies par l amitie. La publication de cet ouvrage vient au moment ou Ciceron tente de se constituer un reseau de relations pour contrer le pouvoir de Marc Antoine, et se presente donc comme un programme politique et un appel a ses contemporains. Ciceron reviendra sur l importance sociale de l amitie dans son dernier ouvrage philosophique, le De Officiis (Des Devoirs).
