

The Bure Valley Railway Recollections (Paperback)

By Gerry Balding, Henry Conn, Andrew Barnes

Silver Link Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Bure Valley Railway is fast becoming one of England s premier narrow gauge railways, offering a service second to none to the enthusiast, traveller and tourist in all seasons of the year. Steam and diesel trains pass through scenery which is as varied, interesting and beautiful as any to be found on a railway journey in England. Between Aylsham and Wroxham there are three intermediate stations at Brampton, Buxton and Coltishall, all of which have their own characteristics and, if time permits, can form part of a fascinating day exploring the Bure Valley by rail and foot or bicycle. The main station of the line is situated in the middle of the market town of Aylsham. Although it is now a terminus, you can easily imagine where a bridge once took the line under the road (alongside our cafe) and beyond. The station buildings here were built in 1989 to a traditional railway design and house a busy railway shop, cafe and a tourist information centre. The Bure Valley Railway s workshops are also based at Aylsham and are often open to the public. Today s Bure...
