Every deaf or blind child between six and sixteen years of age shall attend some school for the deaf or blind for eight months or during the scholastic year, unless it can be shown that the child is elsewhere receiving regular, thorough instruction, during the said period, in studies usually taught in said public school to children of the same age, provided that the Superintendent or Principal of any school for the deaf or blind, or person or persons duly authorized by said Superintendent or Principal, may excuse cases of necessary absence among its enrolled pupils; and provided, further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to a child whose physical condition is such as to render its instruction, as above described, inexpedient or impracticable. Every person having under his control a child between six and sixteen years of age shall cause such a child to attend school or receive instruction as required by this section. Provided that where the parents, guardian or any other person having control of a deaf or blind child, is not financially able to pay for the transportation of the child to and from such school, the same shall be paid out of the State appropriations for the school which the child attends; provided that three reputable male citizens, over the age of twenty-one years, residents of the school district in which the said child resides, shall certify under oath that to the...
