

Teetering the Line: An Adult Coloring Book: Street Art Interpretation of Post-Modern Life (Paperback)

By MR Dan R Drossman

Dan Drossman Publishing, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Meditation, art experiment, fine art book, social exploration, emotional journey-find all of these in Teetering The Line: An Adult Coloring Book, the wonderfully unique and imaginative new coloring book for adults. Contemporary Artist, Street Artist, and illustrator, Dan Drossman offers up reproductions of his own hand-drawn, de-colored, original artworks for your own soothing, coloring pleasure. Drossman s work evokes the art of Keith Haring, Kenny Scharf, Banksy, Carol Dunham, Shepard Fairey, and Takashi Murakami but is unique in its intricate, more emotional, edgier, wary-eyed post-Industrial obsessions. The 22 black-and-white drawings contained in Teetering The Line were spontaneously created in bursts across the year of the artist s emotional recovery, and were originally rendered in full color. Here the artist has extracted all of that formerly pulsing color to allow others to channel their own experience, interpretations, and creativity in its return, while inviting more attention, creativity, and contemplation-by you-in recoloring your own world by filling in the lines. So turn off your cell phone, grab your markers, colored pencils, and pens, take a deep breath, and escape into these unique...
