

Charmed in Chengdu (Paperback)

By Michael O Neal

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . His last overseas teaching gig is spent in Chengdu, China, the Suzhou province of spicy food and spicier women. As a teacher at the Zhong Hu Ze Zhong Vocational School, O Neal finds himself challenged and frustrated with the living conditions in his noisy, unsanitary dorm room, the apathy of his 700 students, and his attempts to gain the attention of the unapproachable beauty, Lovie Du Mi! At least there was beer. But O Neal keeps from throwing in his ragged towel. Dorm living is adapted to with laowei (foreigner) outbursts, misty daybreak coffee mornings, arachnid domestication, and Mons beer afternoons. His most unruly class of 66 teen-aged girls becomes the joy of each week with sweet Ivy, sexually aggressive Shirley, and giggling Sunny vying for his attention. And Lovie Du Mi eventually comes around: Michael, are you a good kisser? Excursions into the Tibetan lowlands help his faltering attitude and resilient humor, as well as exciting his wanderlust. Landscapes of the most dramatic example of the Earth's dynamism reveal themselves in stark contrast to the overpopulation of China. Areas...
