AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 192 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. In Tamara's case, the root of her problems began at the moment of conception. Her father or his family didn't want to acknowledge her as one of their own. After giving birth, Jeanette came home from the hospital and handed her baby to her mother to raise because she was leaving town with her boyfriend. Tamara watched her grandparents struggle to raise her along with their own three children but they somehow managed. It wasn't until Tamara became a teenager that her estranged biological mother, Jeanette, forced Tamara to move in with her and her new boyfriend, Damarcus. Jeanette worked 2 full-time jobs to support the family while Damarcus had other plans on how to take care of Tamara. She dealt with him raping her every chance he had. She wasn't used to living this way because her grandmother had catered to her every need. She wasn't happy with her new living arrangements and if she wasn't happy NO ONE ELSE would be. Being mean-spirited, (a trait that probably came from her roots) caused her to become a Black Widow, and anyone who crossed her was sure to feel her sting, no matter how major or minor. She never learned how to rationally control her anger so she kept it inside and that made matters worse. No one understood her, (she didn't understand herself) Her only outlet was writing in her diary. Grab a seat and come take a trip with Tamara Brown. Where shocking things happen all the time. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
