FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Investing in People: Assessing the Economic Benefits of 1890 Institutions Federal research funding to land - grant universities has been through formula funds, which provide guaranteed funding according to a specified formula, special grant funds, and competitive grants. Federal sources constitute 83 percent of the total research funds at the 1890s; extension programs at the 1890 universities are almost entirely supported by Federal funding through the Cooperative State Research, Education, and Extension Service. Financial support for teaching has come largely from State governments. Federal support is still significant, however, for funding scholarships and for enhancing the capacity of 1890 institutions to develop and improve teaching programs.
