Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. From the author of the hugely successful SPaG Book and its best-selling follow-up Outstanding Literacy comes the ultimate guide to teaching GCSE English re-sits at Post-16. This book focuses on five key themes: 1. Teaching English; 2. Teaching students who ve failed to secure a C grade in English at secondary school and are therefore bound by legislation to sit the exam again, up to the age of eighteen or until they pass ; 3. Teaching students who are likely to be feeling disaffected, disenfranchised and demotivated by the prospect of once again studying a subject they didn t pass the first time around, even after eleven years of formal education; 4. Teaching students who are, by definition of re-sitting a subject they ve previously failed, less able or lower performing than their peers who passed it aged sixteen; and 5. Teaching students who are now in some form of post-16 education or training, most likely in a sixth form college or further education institution, and are therefore to be considered adult students . Part One is about the teaching of GCSE English re-sits at post-16 and offers sage and practical advice on: -How to teach adult students -How to teach disaffected students -How to teach less able students -How to teach post-16 students -How to teach re-sits -How to teach large groups of students -How to teach small groups of students -How to teach through explanations and modelling -How to teach through assessment -How to teach through classroom debates Part Two is about the leadership of GCSE English re-sits at post-16 and proffers expert opinion on: -How to lead an English team -How to lead on attendance -How to lead...
