Excerpt from Millennial Star, Vol. 106: Monthly Magazine on Mormonism; December, 1944 There comes to mind an experience in connection with my brother, Fred, after our father died. Because of the mistreat ment of a stepfather, and neglect, as a young man my brother ran away, and I was told by Brother Mariner W. Merrill, at that time Bishop of Richmond, Utah, that the night after my brother ran away, he, Brother Merrill, went to bed rebellious. He said: I turned to my wife, Sister Merrill, and said, i feel that the Lord should have inspired me to take that boy away from the man who has reared him. He has abused and beaten him. His father is dead, and his mother has left the Church and now he has gone out into world with no hope that he will ever come back again.
