In the small town of Waresville, witches, goblins, and ghouls are money in the townspeople s pockets. Without the magic stores on every corner and spooky tour bus ride, how would a place nicknamed Wheresville survive? But when Harper Foxy Beck, owner of the Funky Wheel and all-around groovy witch, finds her murdered accountant plastered to her floor, the citizens are taught a valuable lesson about creatures that go bump in the night: They kill. Turning Harper s world on its head, the police arrest someone close to her, and she s forced to investigate to clear her friend s name. But as this foxy lady gets closer to the true identity of the killer and the alluring Detective Bennett, the man actually assigned to the case, the quiet town of Waresville turns into a dangerous place for a meddling witch. Suddenly, her long-standing roller rink is a battleground for a satanic witch, and suspects are popping up everywhere she looks. When a second body appears, shattering everything she thought she knew about the murders, Harper needs to decide whom she...
