The increase on each specific article produced for general markets has been similarly great and regular. At Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo and Oswego, the same steady increase in quantities received and shipped is to be observed. The statistics of the business of each of these cities are now regularly published from authentic records, and from these it may be well to extract some of the more striking facts. At Chicago, the first great point from which the produce of the interior moves to Eastern markets, there was forwarded in five years the following quantities of flour and grain: Wheat and Flour Corn. Oats, Rye, and Total Grain, reduced to Wheat. Barley.
