

The Little Guitar Book That Could: First Position (Paperback)

By Walter Klosowski

Omni Music Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .THE LITTLE GUITAR BOOK THAT COULD, in an organized and thoughtful way, showcases all the stock FIRST POSITION C A G E D guitar chord and scale shapes plainly for all to see and use. Before opening this book, there are some things the random guitarist needs to understand, even though he or she may have played for years. For example, in this book, six is the exact number of consecutive frets involved in FIRST POSITION (the open strings count as one fret) and each guitar position spans a musical two octaves plus a perfect fourth. Also in the FIRST POSITION, the 2nd 3rd fingers on the fretting hand are to remain stationary in their respective frets, or slots, right from the get go, because it is their stationary qualities that allow for the fourth finger to stretch or slide that additional single fret. And at this point, before we go any further, one must understand something quite important. When playing guitar in the FIRST POSITION there is no first finger stretch. Get it?.no first finger stretch. The open strings take care of that...
