Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1907 edition. Excerpt: . . . before the offering is taken we shall distribute literature, in large quantities, bearing upon the offering. During the following week some personal work will be done. The next Sunday will be in the nature of an all-day rally. Banners, charts, maps, etc. , will be hung on the walls of the church. A special missionary service will be conducted during the Sunday-school hour for the education of the children. At the regular morning hour of worship a missionary sermon will be preached by the pastor or some one secured from without. In the evening the Christian Endeavor Society will have a missionary program, and the evening church service will be missionary throughout. The Church Bulletin will be devoted entirely to giving valuable pointers on the offering. After such a day we hope to be in good condition to do some effective personal work during the week following. The mid-week prayer meeting on the Wednesday night just before the offering will be our crowning service and ought to give us a splendid opportunity to clinch the missionary knowledge disseminated during the two weeks. Such a campaign surely will go far towards preparing the minds and hearts of our people for an intelligent, cheerful, and loving service on the following Lords Day when the offering is taken. Several other plans have been outlined by the committee, but space forbids mentioning them here. One word, however, should be added relative to our sixth offering: Benevolences. Here is...
