A Bertram, the Aegean and Two Virgins: Tales of Chaos and Confusion from Two Virgin Sailors Let Loose in the Greek Sea (Paperback)

By Jon Burrows

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. MR Stephen Shaw (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. This story is the direct result of me sitting in the Athens airport departure lounge waiting for my flight back to the UK, picking bits of bright green expanded polyurethane adhesive out of my hair and dark brown polyester resin from my beard. I think that the realisation that I had glued my feet into my boat shoes and stuck my toes together brought home the absurdity into which my life had descended. My situation was hammered home when the security people asked me to take off my shoes before I walked through the airport scanner. I had to tear great lumps of skin from my insoles to get the shoes off. What was revealed was akin to some disgusting tropical foot disease and brought horrified gasps from the security girl. All I could do was shrug my shoulders and say I have a boat, and to most Greeks that explains everything. How often have you sat in a sterile workplace and dreamed of sun, blue sea and bright sunny islands? Does your dream involve...
