Panoma Press, United Kingdom, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Ever had a people problem at work? Or been told to brush up your people skills ? Just how are you supposed to do that? This book is for you if you have: been promoted and need to get the best from other people; got a sneaking suspicion that your people skills - or lack of them - might be holding you back in your career; watched others progress - apparently effortlessly - and noticed other people wax lyrical about their inspirational leadership; ever gone home from work worrying about an issue you have with a colleague; wondered who to ask or where to look for answers to some of those tricky questions about working with people - and don t want to ask the very people you work with. With no-nonsense tools and tips, practical exercises and real examples of managing and being managed by other people, this is an essential handbook for surviving at work.
