Thousands upon thousands of children had now heard the important message she had vowed to spread. Unfortunately this happy scenario was soon to be destroyed. A powerful force that had suddenly appeared would throw Fairyland and the human world into turmoil. Unintentionally, Tianaju would acquire the help of a young man she had visited as a child. By chance this young boy had requested something to remember her by. So she gave him a lock of her lovely blond hair. This lock of hair turned out to be the heart and soul of this young boy s life. Now a young man, his love for the beautiful Emerald Queen of Children had never waned, only grown stronger. This love for Tianaju inspired him to write and publish her fascinating life story. Because of his devotion to her, she returned one evening to reward him. It was during this enchanting encounter that the distraught queen at the will of her parents asked for his valuable help to try and end this devastating turmoil. Will their unbreakable bond and the sense of humour they share keep their spirits up when the times are tough? Will he be strong enough alone to destroy this evil force that threatens both their worlds? Or will he have to acquire help from an unusual quarter? Will that even be enough? Could his love and devotion for the beautiful queen ruin everything they had set out to achieve? Or could it bring about an unexpected end.?.
