Experiential Learning for Pre-Service Science and Mathematics Teachers: Applications to Secondary Classrooms into the classroom. This type of science education research is qualitative in nature (Erickson, 1998). The following are some of the questions I asked myself: What are the future teachers struggles as they engage in the scientific inquiry processWhat facilitates (and what inhibits) their learning of scienceWhat enables (and what inhibits) the future teachers to bring similar experiences to their own studentsHow do their students respond to scientific inquiryHow does technology influence their learning How do the collaborative aspects of the learning influence how futureteachers think about science and learning In this monograph, there are two chapters that are evaluative in nature. One is this chapter in which I focus on the pre-service teachers who planned to be-come high-school teachers. In Chapter 7, Lori Livingston Hahn evaluates the CO-LEARNERS Program for the teachers planning to...
