Cavaliers Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book explores the Succession of England s Kings from King Egbert to the Restoration. Complete with original manuscripts of early historians such as Bede and Asser, two of the earliest recorders of history. Asser s works date back to the early 8th Century. These accounts have been included with many other original writings from original authors. The original authors who first recorded history centuries ago! For the first time- These writings are compiled into one book, some never seen in modern times. Now you can read those very sources- that were used to write the history of our past. Actual events recorded by Sir Thomas More of King Richard III and the Princes in the Tower. The Trial of King Charles I and personal memoirs that include his remorse signing Strafford s death warrant. From the 8th century an account of the death of King Ethelbert the night of his wedding celebration- These are just a few original recordings that are included in this book. Enjoy a new insight into the personality of English Kings through the Restoration. Discover new facts in these old memoirs that have never been compiled together in our time. These writings are modernized for easy reading, yet maintaining their original form. Discover the story of England and its Kings. If you love history you will love this book! It is my personal hope that I can turn true historical events into a story you cannot put down, either fiction or non-fiction that is my goal Kelli Rea Klampe It was wonderful. It was an eminently readable history, very exciting and informative. I ve read quite a bit about British history and I learned a lot from...
