Randy Steven Ministries, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Inspirational book for Christian and other readers and leaders. If you have ever found yourself questioning the validity of your relationship with God or wondering if the mistakes you have made in the past somehow disqualified you from being viewed as His son or daughter, you certainly want to look at this perspective. Have you ever wondered how many Pastors and other Leaders in church ultimately found themselves at the forefront for public humiliation through moral failure? This book offers an insightful and realistic look at the dynamics of the walk of Christian believers and the Leadership within the local church. It is unusually transparent as Randy Dean shares experiences from a Pastors perspective that offers illumination to all who look to draw a closer walk in their relationship to God. It is an examination of the fallacies and obstacles shared by Pastors and many other everyday people who find themselves, trying to serve a perfect God and yet working through their human imperfections. He restores my soul shares challenges that many Pastors and their followers often face that are rarely addressed or hidden until they are painfully exposed through the most embarrassing expressions. It offers perspectives and hope within the bible that is rarely viewed that aid in building faith and restoring damaged trust in God and relationships. Learning that we are not alone or an isolated case in our many unspoken challenges is often the key to recovering from an otherwise dismal perspective and diminished hope. One of the greatest discoveries is learning that God has not disowned or disavowed us despite the negative choices we may have made. Instead He Restores My Soul underscores and expresses God s...
