MAMA AIN T TEACH ME THAT (PAPERBACK)

Faith Books More Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .MAMA AIN T TEACH ME THAT A true story about a little girl looking for love in all the wrong places. The age-old question adults ask children is, What do you want to be when you grow up? Like most children, Renee gazed upward and rattled off the top four: doctor, lawyer, teacher, and astronaut. However, years later when her reality collided with her dreams, she awakened to a life far away from the bright future she had envisioned for herself as a child. Even though Renee grew up with two parents and house full of brothers and sisters, she never felt loved. In her childhood home, she never heard the word love. She remembers her parents having rent parties with all of their friends; everyone drinking, dancing and playing cards. One of her dad s friends paid her fifty cents to sit in his lap, when one of her friends only received ten cents; the gift of money made Renee feel good. She looked for those fifty cents every weekend. In her mind, if a man gave her money, he loved her and she carried that line of thinking with her for years. At the age of seventeen, her first sexual encounter led to a pregnancy. Her mother told her she had to marry the father of her child. She refused, but her mother forced Renee against her will. She had a big wedding on the grandest level. One week later the beatings started and continued for three years. Renee s mother told her to stand by her husband s side regardless of his treatment. One night Renee was beaten so badly that she awoke hours later with broken...
