

L'exploitation et la protection des ressources forestières en RCA

By Tchakossa, Benoît

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Éditions universitaires européennes | La dégradation continue du milieu naturel est devenue depuis le début du XIX ème siècle une préoccupation internationale. Elle a engendré une prise de conscience au niveau mondial. De ce fait, la Centrafrique comme les autres Etats a perçu la nécessité de conserver son patrimoine naturel. Ainsi, plusieurs initiatives ont été prises en matière d'exploitation, de protection et de conservation de ses ressources forestières. Demeurant pendant longtemps timorée, la politique de la RCA envers ses ressources forestières s'est consolidée peu à peu. Des réglementations nationales et internationales visant une gestion rationnelle et durable des ressources naturelles ont été mise en uvre dans les années 60. Elles ont été, en outre, renforcées par une multitude d'instruments conventionnels adoptés au niveau international et national. A l'heure actuelle, l'ensemble de ses plans et actions présentent des résultats mitigés compte tenu des aléas qui sont le manque de moyens financiers, matériels et humains. Le problème le plus grave qui se pose est probablement l'absence d'une prise de conscience suffisante des questions environnementales et du développement durable par les populations. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: fre | 528 pp.
