The school endeavors to instruct the child how to avoid ills of various sorts; the State, through inspection, is barring from the school those person who may be a source of danger to others - these are facts that need not at present concern us, though they afford scope for a volume. This bulletin is confined to the hygienic provisions regarding the school site and the school plant. There are difficulties in the way of a satisfactory treatment of this subject; some of them should be noted at the outset. The school codes of many States omit some of the laws bearing on school sanitation. These omissions can only be discovered by a careful scrutiny of the statues. At the same time it is impossible to tell what shall be to-morrow. Various executive authorities, clothed with different degrees of power relative to control of school environment, are competent to act at any moment. State departments of education, State and local boards of health, fire marshals, factory inspectors, district police, etc., are some of the agencies charged with authority to make and enforce regulations carrying all the weight of statutory law. The courts, on the other hand, are competent to review these laws and rulings, and have already in several of the States handed down important decisions bearing upon school hygiene. Increased facilities for communication and the similarity in ideals of the people of the different States have...
