The Librarian's Guide to Employment in the Information Age

By Ted Bloom

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A. Target Market: Novices to experts who are or must become employed. B. My book is unique because it details how to find work and keep it from a librarian's perspective. The book has no tacky guarantees. It covers a variety of employment strategies, including non-traditional solutions. My family background, employment and experience make me an expert on the book topic. C. I am the best person to write this book: My father was a famous, New York City Teamster labor leader who passed on many of his organizing stories and tactics, including work related attempts on his life. I am a native New Yorker, NYC published, college librarian and journalist, with two graduate degrees, one in Vocational-Technical Education, the other Library Science, published Internet, computer and fitness columnist in NYS since 1999, NYS Certified Public Librarian, with NYS Teaching Certification in Media Communications, who created and ran a career preparation computer lab for at-risk youth through the US Department of Labor as well as being a SUNY Communications Instructor and YMCA Fitness Director. A college librarian...
