

Cyprian of Antioch: a Mage of Many Faces (Hardback)

By Frater Acher

Quareia Publishing UK, United Kingdom, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Hardback ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Cyprian of Antioch: a Mage of Many Faces is a detailed analysis of some of the lesser-known strands of myth, history, evidence, and magical hearsay that surround the enigmatic Cyprian of Antioch. It moves beyond the well-known territory of St. Cyprian and peers into some of the more hidden areas of the Mage s history and legend, unearthing a complex and beautiful path that leads, ultimately, back to one man. The story of Cyprian first cast its shadow over the world of fourth-century Christendom. And though this world was quickly sanitized, Cyprian s shadow stuck fast, a mixture of pitch and ashes, and ever since then it has stayed with us in our history of the Magical West. In his well-known and highly articulate voice, Frater Acher takes us on a magical journey where we visit hidden shrines and tombs in Rome. He narrates for us the first English translation of a little-known Germany fairy tale by Theodor Storm, and he shows us lost fragments of folk magic. He takes us diving into the Greek Magical Papyri, and together,...
