Excerpt: . . . system of Marine Insurance for many years in this country. The resolution referred this legislation to the Committee on Insurance for its consideration with full power to take such steps as it might deem necessary, with the advice of the Executive Committee. In accordance with these instructions from the Chamber to act, and with the approval of the Executive Committee, your Committee on Insurance telegraphed to the appropriate officials at Albany under date of April 6th, opposing the bills referred to. The telegram was as follows: The Committee on Insurance of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York is opposed to all bills before the New York State Legislature to regulate marine insurance. It believes that the conditions surrounding marine insurance differ from those pertaining to fire, an important difference being that fire insurance is local and marine international. The New...
