My! My! What a fine help you are! No, I don t need any more help today. He smiled widely at her and then said For your help, I ll give you one piece of advice: If you see any gold pieces on the ship - throw them to the dolphins, never the sharks. Always throw them to the dolphins. He turned back to his stove and she stood silently puzzled, before asking him Why wouldn t I keep a gold piece instead of throwing it in the sea? The cook spun suddenly around with a wild and frightened look in his eye NEVER! Never keep one! They are cursed, you understand? Never keep one! Throw them to the dolphins always! There - I have said too much - go now, quickly! He spun back to his stove and continued working, singing once more, and she turned quietly and left the galley.
