Excerpt from The Hellenian, 1900, Vol. 11 On leaving college he immediately entered on his chosen work of education, being elected principal of the Goldsboro High School. In 1885, he assumed the superintendency of the Goldsboro Graded School which, by skillful organization he made prominent among North Carolina's public schools. From 1885 to 1887 he held the prominent position of president of the North Carolina Teachers Assembly. In 1889, as State Institute Conductor, he began a three-years canvass of the State that resulted in untold good to the cause of education. From 1892-93, he held the chair of History and Literature at the State Normal and Industrial School, which he had done so much to establish, but he resigned this to take the chair of Pedagogy at the University of North Carolina. While occupying this position the task of organizing the University Summer School was imposed upon him. So successful was he in this undertaking that the school is now one of the best of its kind in the whole country and has made for itself a distinctive place...
