Miriam - Victim of Babylon: The Story Not Told in the Book of Mormon (Paperback)

By Sam Antone

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Book of Mormon has characters made of paper. In Sam Richardson s book, Miriam, Victim of Babylon, the characters are brought to life. If you enjoyed reading the Book of Mormon, Miriam will immerse you into in a wonderful and realistic world of intrigue and suspense that can change forever the impact that the Book of Mormon will have in your life. The story begins in ancient Jerusalem. Miriam is betrothed to Zoram and goes to visit him. That same night, his master is murdered and Zoram disappears. Zoram s apparent guilt implicates Miriam, as she was last seen with him. A powerful man s proposal of marriage would save her life, but Miriam refuses. Will she ever find out the truth behind Zoram s permanent disappearance, or will she face execution without getting the answers she craves? The author has fictionalized herein what he imagines to be the aftermath of Laban s murder. Because of the interaction between Laban and Laman, the author has taken the liberty to change Laban s name to Labanyu, thus assuring a more clear distinction...
