Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What if you suspected the sergeant in your crime scene section was a serial killer? What if you thought you had the evidence to prove it, but didn't know whom to trust? Danielle Ramos is a Dallas County deputy sheriff who left the El Paso Sheriff's Department to move forward with her life following her divorce. Her fresh start in Dallas is tempered with her beginning at the bottom of the department. Danielle quickly works herself up to detective again, a position she held in El Paso. The detective's first murder case in Dallas County thrusts her into the world of a past serial killer who has decided after twelve years that now is the time to start killing again. Danielle is merely in the way. Now she must contend with a pushy crime scene sergeant, an ex-husband and confront her worst fears as she comes face to face with the serial killer.
