This is a compiled re-release of the When the Mission Ends trilogy (3 full-length books 1 novella). The military has always been a way of life for the three Robertson siblings: older brother, Colton and twins, Chris and Cassie. Colton and Chris went into the Air Force as pilots and Cassie is a military history professor at Texas Tech University. But when Chris jet is shot down in a horrible mission gone wrong, it throws their entire world into disarray affecting not only their lives, but also the lives of their friends. What happens after that mission ends and they have to find a new focus for living Operation: Endgame Its been six months. Six months since Jake Madsen let Chris Robertson die. Six months since the passion between Jake and Cassie, Chris sister, stepped over the line. But now Cassies being stalked and its time for Jake to swallow his guilt, grief, and lust so he can save her life, even if its a life without him. He owes it to his dead friend and he owes it to Cassie. Hes fallen in love with her, but she doesnt have to know that for him to keep her safe. Operation: Endeavor Colton Robertson left his career in the Air Force to come home and help his family heal. Unfortunately, his reception was not quite what hed hoped for and he ended up as roommate to hippy dippy yoga instructor Penelope Pruitt. Penelope has spent her life under the restrictive thumb of her parents and she doesnt want to do the same with the straight-laced, serious Colton. But when it becomes apparent that Penelopes life is in danger, Colton wont settle...
