Dialectic II: Architecture Between Boom and Bust

By Shundana Yusaf, Ole W. Fischer

University of Utah Press, U.S. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Dialectic II: Architecture Between Boom and Bust, Shundana Yusaf, Ole W. Fischer, Dialectic is the new journal of the School of Architecture at the University of Utah. True to dialectical thinking, the journal brings together opposing voices in the discipline on architectural, urban and wider cultural issues. Deliberately housed within academia, it invites voices from practitioners, scholars and educators to address pedagogy as much as practice. It publishes global perspectives for taking local action. Dialectic is a critical venue for articulating alternative positions on challenges in the highly interconnected, yet tragically disconnected world of contemporary architecture. The second issue of Dialectic, "Architecture between Boom and Bust," is dedicated to the question of economy. While the boom of the 1990s and 2000s made architects and media designers the epitome of the urban creative class, the credit crunch and economic downturn of 2008 dramatically shrunk the profession. With the collapse of the U.S. housing market arguably the trigger for global financial and economic crisis, the building industry became a primary victim. All this has directly affected architects, whose fees are linked to building costs and built volume. Dramatic economic turns, while...
