Xlibris, Corp. Paperback. Condition: New. 290 pages. Dimensions: 13.5in. x 12.7in. x 1.3in. Interest paid on loans is taken for granted. It has been around since practically time immemorial. Lenders and borrowers hardly question its existence and necessity. If asked what the excess amount over the principal is for, the quick reply is legitimate payment for the use of money. This book describes the careful evolution of interest theory largely...
