Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It was snowing lightly as the driver maneuvered the vehicle across the Potomac. Inside it was warm as Special agent of the FBI field office out of Virginia turned on the wipers. Special agent James Henson continued to drive slowly, avoiding the snow drifts that were beginning to accumulate along the side of the road. He drove for the next twenty minutes until he reached the Washington Office of the FBI on Pennsylvania Avenue. He found a parking garage across the street from Washington DC and walked the rest of the way on foot through a mist of snow. Inside the building he continued through a maze of metal detectors and past armed guards, until he reached a desk, signed a ledger and noticed an older woman in perhaps her sixties. She asked him, Can I help you? I m here to see Director Johnson. He s expecting me. And you are? the woman stopped short and waited the last name. Special agent Henson. he commanded. Oh, yes sir, go right up the elevator to the fifth floor. He is waiting for you. He rode the elevator up to the fifth floor and once the door opened, Director Fred Johnson was there to greet him. Welcome agent Henson. You are to follow me. He led him down a corridor to a door with the word Director on it, and opened it. It opened to a large room with books occupying the length of the wall, a large desk with papers covering it, and two chairs opposite each other. The director said, Have a seat agent. Agent Henson sat down. The director continued. I ve read the report on...
