Sometimes there's no better way to understand reality than through fantasy, and the best way to find truth may be in a book - if you can find the right one. Battles against darkness, a quest for truth, and a search for the book that no one can read are all part of the fantasy adventure in The War of Words. As an evil sorcerer wages war by using mysterious shadows and seeks to gain control by confusing the residents as to what's real and what isn't, the fate of the kingdom rests in the hands of Kelsey and Nicholas. As the youngest officer in the king's army, Kelsey fights the evil sorcerer's shadows on the battlefield as she explores the kingdom searching for the key to winning the war. Nicholas, a young sorcerer in training who is mastering his craft, discovers how the right words can change the course of the future. Explore an enchanted maze, uncover the power of words, and learn about friendship in this whimsical tale. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Hardcover.
