You are in the process of creating your inner self for you are a divine being with an important role to play in your environment. Let yourself dream big for you are taking a quantum leap in your evolution with all the help you need around you. You are needed as a valued member of humanity. Think big and reach for the stars. Upon incarnating into the sphere of earth you planted twelve seeds of evolution deep into the tapestry of your inner self. You made a promise, that you would lovingly nurture these seeds and allow them to grow and flourish into mighty gardens that form a complete multidimensional reality. The time has come to water these seeds with your consciousness and come good on your promise. These seeds of evolution exist within everyone and are commonly experienced as energetic impulses. They form your unique blueprint for they are the universal forces that guide your life path. Everything you need to know exists within you. Discover the seeds of necessity and spark them with your spirit, for they are...
