GENETICALLY ENGINEERED ARCHITECTURE

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: AV Akademikerverlag | Design Exploration with Evolutionary Computation | Revision with unchanged content. This book explores design tools based on evolutionary computation (EC), oriented primarily toward conceptual design of architectural and civil engineering ring structures. EC tools are well suited for exploration in a way which promotes creative design. The multiplicity of solutions generated by EC techniques is less likely to cause design fixation, and so promote a more thorough exploration of...
