In Stephanie Kayne's Cat-ch Me If You Can, Batman Julie decides to embrace her inner Catwoman and sink her claws into a charmingly dimpled Batman, but not all is well at the comic convention. This new dynamic duo has a villain in their midst. Geeky blogger Willow Wisp just landed the big interview her fledgling career needed in Layla Kelly's GoldStar. But when the up-and-coming actor turns out to be her first love, they both discover that even after ten years sparks still fly between them. Armed with a box of donuts and a too tight outfit, Penny sneaks into the lab of Dr. Ian Rusach, hoping to convince him of her sister's eligibility for his experimental drug trial. And in Leslie Ann Brown's The Grand Tour, they might just discover that love can soothe even the deepest of hurts. Also featuring stories from: Kristyn F.
