Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When you hear the term side show what does it bring to mind? For some, maybe an old movie or television show comes to mind (The X Files Humbug episode for example). For others, maybe Fairs and Circuses come to mind, after all PT Barnum is credited with creating the side show well over a hundred years ago. For most of us at Abbott s, the term side show means Living Heads, Spider Girls, and even Electric Chairs - All magical illusions that were built and sold by Abbott s during the past century to sideshow performers across the United States (workshop plans to all three are included in this publication). While many remember side shows for presenting human oddities, side shows were also known for presenting working acts which included fire eaters, sword swallowing, Hypnotist, Fortune Tellers, and magicians who performed effects like the Girl without a Head and the Girl in a Fishbowl - illusions built and sold by Abbott s (workshop plans are included in this publication). The secrets, the mystery, and the magic of the side show art now brought to you in one publication. You will go behind the scenes and travel into the past to a time where side shows would travel the United States performing their mysteries.
