Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Popular Instruction, and Its Relation to the Higher Institutions of Learnings: A Discourse Dear Sir, - Believing that your Sermon on Popular Education, delivered at the Congregational Meeting House in St. Albans on the late Thanksgiving Anniversary, if circulated in a printed form, will greatly tend to promote the cause of education, we respectfully request you to furnish us with a copy for the press. To the Hon. Benjamin Swift and others: - Gentlemen, - The Discourse, a copy of which you have politely asked for the press, was hastily run off, with no object in view ulterior to the occasion on which it was delivered; of course it can make but slight pretensions to literary merit. At the same time, if, as you are pleased to intimate, a more extensive diffusion of the thoughts it comprises may contribute, though in a humble degree, in aid of important interests now before the Public, I do not feel at liberty to decline your request. In committing the Discourse to your disposal, it is proper to say, that in addition to some slight changes in phraseology I have inserted a few sentences for a more full elucidation of one or two points; and suppressed the closing address, as unimportant to the main discussion.
