Palgrave MacMillan, United Kingdom, 1997. Paperback. Condition: New. 1997 ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book analyses the changing context and conditions of production and livelihood amongst Southeast Asia s peasants since the beginning of the nineteenth century. It argues that with demographic growth and the nineteenth century development of great global markets based on small-scale production, the size and economic significance of peasantries throughout the region was magnified. However, such changes brought with them new forces - stronger states, more regular legal systems, a revolution in communications, intensive commercialisation - which themselves worked to undermine the foundations of peasant society and, eventually, to transform peasants into farmers, workers and citizens.
