

Born into a Dream

By Gustav N. Kristensen

BWV Berliner-Wissenschaft Mai 2010, 2010. Taschenbuch. Book Condition: Neu. 229x153x30 mm. Neuware - Throughout centuries, the Baltic Sea has mitigated free trade and cultural exchange among people and nations with widely different backgrounds, which gave dynamism and diversity. After a troubled - though in a historical context fairly short - period with limitations on trade and individual freedom, our shared sea has resumed its old role. 'Born into a dream' looks beyond the dark period into the new freedom and into the challenging building up of the societies around our common heritage. Thank you for the 'the dream'. Per Bødker Andersen President of the Union of the Baltic Cities (UBC) 'Born into a Dream' draws attention to the many enlightened idealists that have been so crucial for giving flesh and bones to Nordic and German government support for the Baltic countries and to the Baltic countries' successful dismantling of their Soviet legacy. With today's focus on talents and university upgrading as means of facing global competition, it is also a compelling and interesting story in which Gustav N. Kristensen describes successes and failures in the extraordinary committed work done by the many dedicated people behind the EuroFaculty. Hans Brask...
