

The Highlander Without a Bride (Paperback)

By Johanna Maas

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.The bride was beautiful. But it was her sister Marie who stood before all proclaiming her love and devotion and not Kaye. It had nothing to do with Marie s intended, for she knew that they were perfect for one another, it was that Marie was marrying prior to Kaye. But Kaye, who had now reached her twenty-first year and the eldest of the three daughters, was now the only one that remained unwed with no prospects in sight. And that cut her deeply, for no one had ever claimed her! Is she that dreadful? That unlovable? During her sister s wedding reception she is suddenly thrown together with a proper English gentleman and one that is old enough to be her father! He is not outwardly handsome and could never stir her emotions but he has promised to marry her. Kaye did find him cordial and kind and if she put her mind to it she was certain she could love him, could she not? Was that not enough? For the fear of being alone had her quite frightened...
