

Trojan: The Enemy Within (Paperback)

By David L Wallace

David L Wallace, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Victor, who is comparable to an extremely patriotic Jason Bourne, is an intriguing hero. - Clarion Review Victor Walker, White House Nuclear Defense Systems Manager, expected his co-workers within the sacred halls of the west wing to be above reproach, but on August 6th, it became evident someone there was anything but that. Suddenly and without warning, all the nuclear armament and defense systems for which he was responsible crashed - a completed meltdown. Star Wars, Air Force One, Doomsday Briefcase and Guidance Systems launch and protection capabilities were all rendered useless. Exposed, America was brutally attacked, major cities bombed. During the race to resolve the issue and bring the systems back online, Victor found indicators that pointed to an infiltrator, to a mole buried deep among the white house staff. The president, the joint chiefs and DoD s top technical minds had a different read on things - they all believed the clues painted Victor as the culprit. Forced to be a fugitive on the run until he could clear his name, Victor must hack into and breach the systems he...
