Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 318 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. Excerpt from The Church Year Pulpit Library: Easter Day First Sunday After Easter We have followed Jesus through His sufferings and into His silent tomb, and this glorious Easter morning, even before we came to listen to it in church, we began to tell ourselves the story of His Resurrection almost before we were awake; the thought of the empty tomb, the waiting angels, the puzzled women came to us with a blessed realisation of what it was all so soon to mean to them and to us. The sun united with our souls to bring us joy, while to those of us who faithfully follow Jesus through the gloom and trial of Good Friday, every ray that shines, every breeze that blows, every flower that blossoms tells of the Resurrection of Jesus, and of the joy that comes with the news of a risen Christ. We are keeping in our Church to-day, as the Church has kept for so many centuries, as the disciples kept it in Jerusalem, the anniversary of the Resurrection. There is one special thing about the anniversary. About...
