The program operates on a user pay system, wherein users contribute to the Highway Trust Fund through fuel taxes and other fees. The distribution of funding among the states has been a contentious issue. States that receive less than highway users contribute are known as donor states and states that receive more than users contribute are known as donee states. To conduct this review, GAO obtained and analyzed data from FHWA, reviewed FHWA and other reports, and interviewed FHWA and DOT officials. GAO is not making any recommendations. DOT reviewed a draft of this report and provided.
