Robert Bernard Tracy (1925-1971): A Life of Remembrance

By Michael T Tracy

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .After being discharged from the U.S. Marine Corps at the close of World War II, Robert Bernard Tracy resumed his civilian life by going back to school to obtain his high school diploma. During this period he wrote his own book of knowledge. This short book of knowledge gives the reader a sense of the wit, cleverness and humor that captured the character of Robert Bernard Tracy. In one page he wrote: "School is another way of teaching the younger generation how to ruin civilization. In time it will succeed." In another page of his book of knowledge he wrote: "High School is a four year intermission between grammar school and unemployment." As a young child to make his mother remember him or what he needed, he would at times sign his name as "BB Bats," which were lollipops that he enjoyed as a child. He would spend most of his childhood years with his siblings being raised by his grandparents in Kalamazoo, Michigan. Robert began working as a service station attendant for his uncle,...
