Excerpt: . . . glad to find that Priscilla was not at all like her. Priscilla and I have been very happy together, in our quiet way; she has been the best of dear, good girls to me. Indeed, I really dont know what I shall do when I must lose her, as of course you know I shall be obliged to, when she marries Mr. Denis Oglethorpe! Yes, maam, answered Theo, and as she spoke, she felt a curious, startled glow flash over her. This was the first time an actual approach to the subject had been made in her presence. Yes, my dear! said Miss Elizabeth again. I shall feel the separation very deeply, but it must be, you know. They have waited so long for each other, that I should be a very wicked, selfish old woman to throw any obstacle, even so slight a...
